

ANNOUNCEMENT

DTIP2019 – Paris, France – May 12th to May 15th, 2019

Don't miss the premier European scientific event on Microsystems, MEMS and MOEMS
Save the date!!!

DTIP'2018, held in Roma and organized by Romolo Marcelli and his team from IMM Roma, was extremely appreciated by an hundred of attendees for the quality of both scientific and social programs. Oral and poster presentations were carefully selected by the Technical Program Committee to insure a high scientific level and awesome plenary speakers have been invited. DTIP is definitively the premier MEMS scientific conference in Europe. If you ever missed this issue, feel free to have a look to the proceedings on the IEEE Xplore database.

While the Technical Program Committee is working on the review of papers submitted to the special issue of DTIP'2018 to appear in Microsystem Technologies (Springer), it is now time to prepare your contributions for the next issue of DTIP. In-line with the previous editions, DTIP'2019 will be a scientific event with two main conferences, along with special sessions and invited talks. Accepted papers will be published in IEEE Xplore and their extended version will be considered for publication in a special issue of an indexed journal.

The 2019's edition of DTIP will be held in downtown Paris, France, from May 12th till May 15th and your scientific contributions are expected.

Important dates are:

- Paper submission deadline: December 2nd, 2018
- Notification of acceptance: February 8th, 2019
- Camera-ready due and Early bird registration: April 5th, 2019

Research paper submission

DTIP aims to present the latest research in "Design, Integration, Test and Packaging of MEMS and MOEMS". A program committee composed with international experts in their field will review all submitted papers. Even if abstracts of about 600 words will be considered, it is recommended to submit extended abstracts (up to 1500 words) plus one page of figures for efficient and fair scientific reviewing. Detailed instructions regarding electronic submissions will be posted on the Authors Information page.
